

CODE OF CONDUCT – RELATING TO THE WEBSITE

- Do not use vulgar, discriminatory or inappropriate language
- Do not cause discomfort for other people using or reading the website
- Be both discreet and factual with the content of your articles
- Give a balanced view of the game when entering a match report
- Provide positive comments to opponents and match officials wherever possible
- Do not use the site as a forum for your own personal agenda
- Give priority to the interests of the team over individual interests
- Show respect to all players from all teams, the coaches and match officials
- Never enter any personal details of any player onto any part of the site
- Remember you are responsible and liable for the articles you post onto the site